Lent

Lent began on Ash Wednesday and lasts until the week before Easter Sunday. The Lenten season lasts 40 days (excluding Sundays). This echoes back to the 40 days Jesus spent in the wilderness at the beginning of his public ministry.

As ashes were imposed with a solemn reminder, "Remember you are dust, and to dust you shall return" or similar words. While it sounds very grim, it is actually a loving reminder that our earthly life is a very short, very precious gift. It is God's desire that we use this gift well. After this reminder, we have a whole season to think about how we can follow Jesus, becoming more Christ-like.
