

We're looking to start a Gregorian Chant Study Group in May; the group will be centered around learning about chant and its history, considering the possibility of incorporating chant into the mass, and should it be possible, starting to practice chant with the goal of performing it during mass. If you are interested in learning about chant and joining the Study Group, please contact LeRon Harrison at leronjh@gmail.com.