Saints Who Are Fathers

Saint Louis Martin

Though he wished to enter religious life, he answered God's call to marriage and raised an extraordinarily holy family. All five of his daughters who survived to adulthood became nuns.

Saint Louis IX

St. Louis IX was more than just the king of France — he was also the father of eleven children! St. Louis took his responsibilities as a monarch seriously, and he saw his kingship as an opportunity to serve God.

Saint Thomas More

He is best known for his defense of the Church and marriage against King Henry VIII, but he had been a holy man of integrity for his whole life. This integrity extended abundantly into his role as a father.

Saints Joseph

This quiet, unassuming man listened closely to God and gave himself entirely to the Father's will. Never complaining, St. Joseph humbly accepted his task and became a model of fatherhood in the Holy Family.
